Family, Couple and Individual Counselling

Breton and Area FCSS offers a subsidy for counselling services to residents of Brazeau County (west of the North Saskatchewan River), and the Village of Breton. Residents must meet two criteria to be eligible for subsidy:

1. Gross family income less than $60,000 (line 150 of current tax return), and,
2. No access to employee insurance benefits.

Services are contracted through Peter Miller Psychological Services. Counsellors will either be marital and family therapists, or psychologists. Each qualifying individual may make seven appointment through this service per calendar year or nine per couple or family. Fees for the service are based on a sliding scale and range from a minimum of $12/session to a maximum of $50/session. Breton and Area FCSS will have an agreement with the service provider to offer meeting space for the sessions. Breton FCSS will subsidise visits to a maximum of $68/visit. There will be an intake session fee for each qualifying individual or family of $20.00, which is for the first session only.
